SUMMER 2017

WEEK TWO

Monday

And were back for another amazing week in Mini Merockdim. This week we are exploring the arctic animals in the zoo. We made adorable snowmen out of marshmallows and edible body parts. The best part was gobbling them up after!! We went mini golfing and we love climbing all over the really cool pirate ships inside. We went swimming in our big heated pool, and got to play some really fun games with the lifeguards. It was another awesome day in Mini Merockdim.

Wednesday

We missed everyone so much on our off day, but Wednesday found us back in camp with our smiles bigger than ever. Gymnastics day! We flipped and walked along the balance beams and hung from bars, it was all so exciting to learn and have fun. We made adorable teddy bear pushkas, it was really exciting to paint the ceramics and use google eyes. Make sure to use these at home! Our sand area became really exciting this week when we got tons and tons of new sand toys, we were sitting in the sand for so long we didn't want to come out. We had a yummy meatball and spaghetti lunch and off to swimming in our big fun pool. We topped off a great day with yummy yummy ices! Only in Mini Merockdim!!!!!!

Thursday

Ice Cream Day!!! We all came to camp so excited to see the fun ice cream day had in store. We started the festivities with Ice Cream sand art. We made our own colored sand and filled our ice cream necklaces with beautiful sand patterns. We had fish sticks and noodles for lunch which we gobbled down. We had a special surprise today, Music and movement with Morah Malky Lehmann. We were dancing away, we had so many cool props, we jumped thru hoops and followed Morah Malky's motions. All with huge smiles on our faces! After more playing and swimming, we made our way to our ice cream party. We had tons of exciting flavors to choose from with cones and sprinkles too. What a great way to end this fabulous day.

Friday

Pizza Day!! Even the rain can't keep us away from Mini Merockdim. We danced in the rain with huge umbrellas and knew we were gonna have an awesome day. We colored a lot of nice pictures and played with all of our cool bunkroom toys that we never get to use. Then it was time for PIZZA DAY! We ran to the lunchroom and gobbled down as much pizza as we wanted, it was so yummy. Then we went back for Shabbos Party, where campers and daveners of the week were announced. We are so proud of all the campers who tried so hard. Another amazing week in Mini Merockdim comes to a close.
